

Andy Firth: a snapshot

Andy Firth continues to tour and perform with Australia's leading jazz and classical artists and ensembles. Andy is a regular guest performer at clarinet and saxophone conferences both in Australia and overseas.

Andy Firth is widely regarded as one of the most outstanding clarinet players in the world today, having played internationally with some of the finest performers, bands and orchestras in both classical and jazz music.

His mastery of the clarinet and saxophone, unrivalled expression of tone and technique, and endless devotion and enthusiasm to the music that he plays, has earned Andy a reputation as a performer not to be missed!

Andy Firth has performed with some of the world's finest musicians: Buddy DeFranco, Ingrid Jensen, Diana Krall, Wynton Marsalis-(associate guest artist) B.B. King-(associate guest artist), Lee Konitz, Gary Motley, Jay Hungerford, Ken Kehner, Joe Berger, Bud Shank, James Moody, Don Lusher, Steve Harlos, Steve Haughton, The Dutch Swing College Band, Kenny Ball and his jazzmen and Acker Bilk. Australian artists include Maestro Tommy Tycho, Anthony Warlow, Don Burrows, James Morrison, Tommy Emmanuel, Sarah McKenzie, Liam Burrows, Marina Prior, Julie Anthony,

In 1987, Andy's arranging mentor, Maestro Tommy Tycho encouraged Andy to study and develop his own arranging and composition abilities and even gave Andy numerous lessons and compositions for him to study.

By 2003, Andy had become an award-winning composer having won awards for his music for television and film. To date, Andy has over 800 compositions to his name some of which are full scale classically oriented or chamber music works. In 2003, Boosey & Hawkes (London) published Andy's popular woodwind series "Play Clarinet with Andy Firth" and "Play Saxophone with Andy Firth", and these have now become part of the main list syllabus for Australian and other International woodwind examinations. Andy's music is now published by Accessible Music Publishing (andyfirthmusic.com), Boosey & Hawkes (London), Royal College of Music (London), ABRSM (UK), Alfred Publishing (US), Trinity College, (London).

In 2000, US mouthpiece maker, Mike Lomax (Lomax Classic) further honoured Andy with his own series of clarinet mouthpieces, the "Andy Firth Jazz Series".

Andy Firth has also worked with many of Australia's major symphony orchestras as a jazz and classical soloist with the great Australian Maestro, Tommy Tycho, who often featured him as the soloist in his musical arrangements. In April 2006 Andy Firth was honoured with an Australian MO AWARD for "Best Jazz Instrumentalist".

Andy Firth continues to tour and perform with Australia's leading jazz and classical artists and ensembles and he is a regular guest performer at National and International clarinet and saxophone conferences both in Australia and overseas.

Andy can also be heard playing the jazz clarinet solos on Baz Luhrmann's epic film, "Australia".
